Palliative care is a holistic and person-centered approach to compassionate care. In this webinar, we will discuss palliative care, what it is and what it isn't, how it is initiated, and how it is different from end-of-life preparation. We will explore healthcare decision-making and the importance of understanding your wishes.

M.C. Sullivan, JD, MTS, RN

MC Sullivan, a nurse-bioethicist-attorney, is Director of the Initiative for Palliative Care and Advance Care Planning for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Boston. In that capacity, she created and implements a program of education, ethics, and advocacy to improve the care of the seriously ill and dying. She was previously Director of Ethics at Covenant Health Systems. At Covenant, Ms. Sullivan provided professional education in ethics to the systems' leadership and boards, its professional and non-professional staffs. She also reviews and, as needed, creates and revises policies for the organization. In addition, she consulted with the health care providers throughout the systems on urgent patient care and organizational issues.

She was formerly in private practice, providing strategic counsel in ethics and public policy, ethics and corporate policy, and ethics and law, emphasizing strategic communications in the creation of "the message" as well as its dissemination and execution. Full bio available on our website.
