Member Needing Skilled Nursing

- Needs constant supervision because of a relatively changeable physical condition.
- Care needs to be supervised by an RN on a 24-hour basis.
- Medications or medication delivery may be complicated.
- May suffer from dementia; emotional and psychological responses may not be appropriate.
- May need therapies
  - Occupational therapy
  - Respiratory therapy
  - Physical therapy
- Medically qualifies for a licensed skilled nursing facility.

Member Residing in Assisted Living

- Requires assistance with activities of daily living (ADLs)
  - Eating
  - Bathing or showering
  - Dressing
  - Getting in or out of bed or a chair
  - Using the toilet
- May be afraid to be alone because of physical and psychological limitations
- Most likely needs assistance with medications
- Needs to live in a congregate setting to access assistance from health care workers and other service providers.

Member Who Lives Independently with Services

- Requires assistance with instrumental activities of daily living (IADLs)
  - Meal preparation
  - Managing money
  - Shopping for groceries and personal items
  - Performing light housework
  - Using a telephone
- Is likely to live in a congregate setting (e.g. Motherhouse) in order to have access to services.
- May live in the congregate setting because of physical limitations, e.g., has a walker, needs handrails, needs access to an elevator.
- May need assistance with accepting the limitations of aging
Member Who Lives Independently

- Is fully independent with respect to ADLs (activities of daily living) and is essentially independent with respect to IADLs (instrumental activities of daily living).
- Is able to handle medication regime.
- Is competent in decision-making and problem-solving; emotional and affective responses are appropriate
- Is able to live in a local group setting and may be able to be involved in ministry.

Revised 1/29/2020