Bulletin Briefs

“[A]t the origin of every human being there is not something haphazard or chance, but a loving plan of God.”

— Pope Benedict XVI, Homily, July 9, 2006

“To defend and promote life, to show reverence and love for it, is a task which God entrusts to every man ...”

— Pope John Paul II, Evangelium vitae, 42

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
before you were born I dedicated you,
a prophet to the nations I appointed you.”

— Jeremiah 1:5 (NABRE © 2010 CCD. Used with permission.)

“Every human person - no matter how vulnerable or helpless, no matter how young or how old, no matter how healthy, handicapped or sick, no matter how useful or productive for society - is a being of inestimable worth created in the image and likeness of God. This is the dignity of America ... the ultimate test of her greatness: to respect every human person, especially the weakest and most defenseless ones, those as yet unborn.”

— Pope John Paul II, “Apostolic Journey to the United States and Canada: Farewell Ceremony,” September 19, 1987

“[T]he courage and grace shown by those women who choose life—in the face of fear, uncertainty, parental or partner intimidation, seemingly insurmountable odds—make them today's heroes. They are joined by the many who counsel, support and nurture them both before and after the birth of their child. Such self-giving love...is powerfully transformative of mother, of child, of families, of cultures.”
