PAULIST PRESS CITED FOR CATHOLIC-JEWISH PUBLISHING

WASHINGTON--The Advisory Committee for the Secretariat for Catholic-Jewish Relations of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops has expressed appreciation to Paulist Press for its efforts in providing materials to further the cause of this dialogue.

Bishop Francis J. Mugavero of Brooklyn is Episcopal Moderator of the Advisory Committee, which decided to send a letter of appreciation to Paulist Press at a recent meeting.

The letter was sent by Dr. Eugene J. Fisher, Executive Director of the Secretariat, to Father Kevin A. Lynch, C.S.P., of Paulist Press, located in Mahwah, New Jersey.

"Paulist Press over the years has been a leader, not only nationally but indeed internationally in publishing solid works on the scholarly and popular level concerning the dialogue, through its Stimulus series and many other fine publications," Dr. Fisher wrote. "The recent issue of New Catholic World devoted to Christian-Jewish Relations since Nostra Aetate is simply one more case in point."

Nostra Aetate, the Declaration on the Relationship of the Church to Non-Christian Religions, was issued by the Second Vatican Council on October 28, 1965.
