

Catechumenal Pathways
for Married Life
Called to the Joy of Love:
Implications for Marriage & Family Life Ministry

Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone, Chairman

Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth

An Opportunity to Strengthen Marriage Preparation

- Called to the Joy of Love encouraged our Church and faithful in the U.S. to proclaim the joyful Gospel of the family with creativity and courage.
- Catechumenal Pathways for Married Life published by the Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life calls for a new catechumenate for marriage preparation already desired by Pope John Paul II in Familiaris Consortio.

Catechumenal Pathways proposes a new pastoral model

- Includes general principles and a comprehensive pastoral proposal.
- Adaptable to the reality of each local Church.
- Not another program, but a new pastoral approach.
- Complements and reinforces Called to the Joy of Love

Implications of marriage preparation based on the Catechumenate model:

- Kerygma: personal encounter with Jesus Christ (evangelizing opportunity)
- Calm: sufficient time for couples to reflect and mature (stages of preparation marked by rites of passage (rituals) within specific timeframes)
- Co-responsibility: on behalf of the entire parish to support the engaged couple (a marriage building parish)

Each diocese/eparchy is asked to pilot a marriage catechumenate pathways/program

The Future of the Family is the Future of the Church

- Millennials from married homes are 78% more likely to attend church than peers from unmarried homes.
- A study of former Catholics found that 74% left the faith between the ages of 10 and 20, with age 13 being the median age when kids 'check out' of the faith.
- 82% of Catholic parishes spend $0 on marriage and relationship ministry.

The Future of the Family is the Future of the Church

- Increasing disaffiliation among engaged couples and married couples of all ages
- Family Life is the most underserved ministry in the Church today
- Strong marriages = strong families

- Decline in the family results in a decline in the Faith
