The COVID Crisis: The Lessons We Are Learning

During this unprecedented time, we have learned much, and we will continue to learn as we face this pandemic.

During this workshop, three Communities will share their experiences and the changes they have made in order to address the many challenges caused by this virus. They will share their stories of understanding the need for transformation, implementing practical procedures and processes, and learning positive lessons from their experiences.

This webinar is designed for individual members of Congregations as well as leadership and healthcare providers.

Meet the Presenters

Sister Michael Ann Orlik, SS.C.M.

Sr. Orlik is the General Superior for the Sisters of St. Cyril and Methodius, Danville, PA. Because her Congregation sponsors two healthcare facilities, Maria Joseph Continuing Care Community and Maria Hall Personal Care for Sisters, her role in leadership has provided Sister with many opportunities to learn more about the healthcare community and its needs, especially in this time of the coronavirus pandemic.

Sister Barbara Sable, SS.C.M.

Sr. Barbara serves in institutional leadership as the Assistant to the General Superior for the Sisters of St. Cyril and Methodius, Danville, PA. Sister has an MA in school counseling from the University of Dayton, OH, and an MSW from Loyola University in Chicago.

Daniel S. Flynn, LCSW

Dan is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and a Clinical Trauma Professional. He has been certified to facilitate workshops in the Stanford University Better Health, Better Choices® chronic disease and diabetes self-management programs. He assists Province Leadership in administrative oversight of all Health and Social Service infrastructure while providing professional advocacy, liaison and care coordination support to all professed Members in matters of wellness and wellbeing.

Kathy McDonnell, RN

Kathy is the Director of Nursing for the Sisters of St. Francis in Dubuque, IA. She has served as Director for the Sisters for the last 29 years in a residential and long-term care setting, working with a nursing staff of 110 employees and a Sister population of 130 Sisters. Kathy most recently completed the Nursing Home Infection Preventionist Training Course offered by the Centers for Disease Control which has been most helpful in navigating the set up and day-to-day operation of the present pandemic precautions and operations.
