

NEWS

FILE
COPY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: March 16, 1973

FROM: William Ryan

O - 202-659-6700
H - 202-686-6576

ANGLICAN/ROMAN CATHOLIC
DOCUMENTS ARE PUBLISHED

WASHINGTON--A booklet entitled "Documents on Anglican/Roman Catholic Relations," Part II, has been compiled by the U.S. Bishops' Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs in cooperation with the Joint Commission on Ecumenical Relations.

The booklet is a collection of commentaries and responses which appeared after an Agreed Statement on Eucharistic Doctrine was published by the International Anglican-Catholic Commission at Windsor, England, in 1971. The "Windsor" statement itself was published last year in Part I of Documents on Anglican/Roman Catholic Relations.

The contents of the present booklet are:

--A commentary on the Agreed Statement by Rev. Herbert J. Ryan, S.J., of Woodstock College, New York.

--A statement by the Anglican-Roman Catholic Consultation, U.S.A., on the Agreed Statement.

--A statement by the Anglican-Roman Catholic Consultation, U.S.A., on "Doctrinal Agreement and Christian Unity: Methodo-

NATIONAL CATHOLIC OFFICE FOR INFORMATION

1312 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE, N.W. • WASHINGTON, D. C. 20005

/more

logical Considerations."

--The response of the Bishops' Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs on the Agreed Statement.

--The response of the House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church to the Agreed Statement.

--An article by Jan Cardinal Willebrands, president of the Vatican Secretariat for Christian Unity, on "Prospects for Anglican-Roman Catholic Relations."

"Documents on Anglican/Roman Catholic Relations" is available for $1.00 from the Publications Office of the U.S. Catholic Conference.

Also available at 15 cents a copy, 10 cents for 10 or more copies, is "The Catholic Church and the National Council of Churches," a reprint of a series of articles by Kay Leslie first published by the National Catholic News Service.

#

X.A.CL.DD