

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16

Elections of Chairmen: Committees on Canonical Affairs and Church Governance, Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, Evangelization and Catechesis, International Justice and Peace, Protection of Children and Young People, and Committee for Religious Liberty

Ukraine

14 million people displaced

Call for dioceses to host displaced families

Continue to pray, help, and advocate for peace

National Eucharistic Revival

2023 – Parish year to focus on small groups

2024 – Missionary year with pilgrimages from the four corners of the country to the National Eucharistic Congress in July 2024

Journeying Together

Multi-year intercultural and intergenerational synodal process

Events from 2020 through 2022 convened young, diverse, and prophetic voices

Institute on the Catechism

Creation of new Subcommittee on the Catechism to improve catechetical and evangelization efforts

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16 (CONTINUED)

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship

Bishops approved reissuing Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship without revisions, plus supplemental materials. The process of re-examining the document will begin immediately after the 2024 election.

Catholic Relief Services

Served 200 million people worldwide in the past year, including Ukraine, the Holy Land, Africa, Asia, Latin American, and the Caribbean.

World Youth Day 2023

August 1-6 in Lisbon, Portugal for young people aged 18-35. Bishop registration is through the USCCB.

Migration

USCCB's Migration and Refugee Services is resettling Afghan and Ukrainian refugees.

CLINIC's network serves more than 500,000 low-income immigrants each year and assists with immigration legal needs of religious workers.